

McCord Memorial Library Books 'N Banter

April 2018

Thank You!

As always the March Book Sale sponsored by Friends of the Library was a success. Monies raised in the sale of used books, videos, puzzles, etc., go to support McCord Memorial Library. The sale raised about $ 1,800!

Thank you to everyone who made donations for the sale and/or purchased items! We would also like to whole-heartedly thank everyone who assisted before, during and after the sale. It was everyone's help and generosity that made the sale a success!

National Library Week
April 8-14, 2018

Since 1958, National Library week has been a national observance sponsored by the American Library Association (ALA) and libraries across the country. It is a time to celebrate the contributions of our nation's libraries and librarians and to promote library use and support.

National Library Workers Day, celebrated the Tuesday, April 11, of National Library Week, is a day for library staff, users, administrators and Friends groups to recognize the valuable contributions made by all library workers.

This year's theme is "Libraries Lead" For more information on this or on the American Library Association, log onto: www.ala.org.

APRIL PROGRAMS

April is Poetry Month

Let's learn about Sonnets

Traditionally, the sonnet is a fourteen-line poem written in iambic pentameter, which employ one of several rhyme schemes and adhere to a tightly structured thematic organization.

Sonnet X [To one who has been long in city pent]

John Keats, 1795 - 1821

To one who has been long in city pent,
'Tis very sweet to look into the fair
And open face of heaven,—to breathe a prayer
Full in the smile of the blue firmament.
Who is more happy, when, with hearts content,
Fatigued he sinks into some pleasant lair
Of wavy grass, and reads a debonair
And gentle tale of love and languishment?
Returning home at evening, with an ear
Catching the notes of Philomel,—an eye
Watching the sailing cloudlet's bright career,
He mourns that day so soon has glided by:
E'en like the passage of an angel's tear
That falls through the clear ether silently.
