McCord Memorial Library: Great Library Great Community Annual Appeal 2021-2022

Due to COVID-19, these past two years have been difficult for many families. McCord Memorial Library closed for a number of months and we are still operating under some restrictions. Though the majority of our funding comes from tax dollars, we must also raise funds each year in order to continue serving the community as we do.

McCord Memorial Library appreciates the past support that our North East community has given, and are asking for continued support of the 2021-2022 annual appeal.

Any contribution you make will help us assure the continued excellence of McCord Memorial Library in the future and is very much appreciated.

Thank you!

Sarah Reviews:

Me (Moth) by Amber McBride

Amber McBride’s debut young adult novel is a coming of age story full of emotion and vivid imagery. This book will knock you down and lift you up in the same breath. Me (Moth) is a quick read, but an unforgettable one that will leave you in tears.

McBride’s novel-in-verse traces the story of Moth, who lost her family in a car accident and now lives with her still-grieving aunt. Moth is merely going through the motions until she met Sani, a Navajo boy disconnected from his heritage.

Sani has his own baggage, domestic abuse and depression.

Together, they embark on a road trip back to Sani’s home and his father. This ride not only draws Sani and Moth closer together, but also draws them closer to the truth about themselves.
