Blind Date with a Book

We hope everyone enjoyed their dates!
How was your date?

Date alias The Night Circus was a pleasure to absorb. Lots of mindboggling intrigue—my mind loves bogging.
Erin Morgenstern, I'd date you again!

The Historian was not my "flavor." I stayed for the "date" but went home as early as possible. I'm certain there is "someone" out there who will give you the appreciation you need and crave.

I have fallen in love — Verses for the Dead was fabulous date! I am presently hoping to resume a relationship with my date.
Needing a Pendergast novel in my life... thanks!

Lost and Found was a pleasure from opening to close of date. Please ask me again, now that we've met. Great twists and turns!

The Hazel Wood is a little convoluted for me but I enjoyed my time spent with her as being better than a kick in the head.
Ha Ha—maybe not!

My date with Nights in Rodanthe was a lovely experience but I find that only once in a great while am I capable of continuing a relationship like this. Nice experience.

The Missing by Chris Mooney
Great— I really enjoyed this— I will definitely be getting another of his books. Thank you — this was great.

The Passage by Justin Cronin; He and I were at loggerheads from pick-up to take me home— time. Was dark, bloody, intending to frighten (or educate) me in an alternate lifestyle.

The Good Guy by Dean Koontz
Couldn't get into it.

McCord Library has a large assortment of DVDs, Audio books, Playaways, and other non-print available for all ages.
