National Library Week

April 3 - 9, 2022

National Library Week is a time to celebrate our nation's libraries, library workers' contributions, and promote library use and support.

Since 1958, National Library Week has been sponsored by the American Library Association (ALA) and observed in libraries across the country each April.

All types of libraries - school, public, academic and special - participate.

Check out our new TV!

Our new TV will show news, events, programs, and more!

City Nature Challenge 2022

Get outside with us April 29 – May 2 during the City Nature Challenge.

This international community science event challenges us to explore the biodiversity around us.

Everyone is welcome

- ◆ download the free iNaturalist app
- ◆ create an account
- ◆ go outside and start exploring

Any iNaturalist observations made in Pennsylvania north of I-90 during this 4-day period will be included. Record observations from your backyard, around the library, in the park, at Freeport -everywhere north of I-90 is fair game.

Join us Saturday April 30th in McCord Library at 1:30 pm, and bring a web accessible device to install the iNaturalist app. Afterward we will walk around town, weather permitting.

Seeking Small-town Stories

Do you have an interesting story to share? As part of our continued commitment to serve our North East community, we are seeking small town stories to record for short 5-10 minute videos to put on our website.

We have the equipment, just bring your story!

Virtual Speaker Series

The Speaker Series returned to McCord Library on Facebook and YouTube during March.

We hope everyone enjoys the videos! Let us know what other videos you'd like to see in the future.

McCord Library has a large assortment of DVDs, Audio books, Playaways, and other non-print available for all ages. We also have a variety of television series: Death in Paradise, Friday night lights, Star Trek, Game of Thrones, Parenthood, Midsomer Murders, and more!
